

Table of Content

Introduction	1
Acknowledgements	3
1. Forecasting, Foresight, Anticipation	5
The future is something else	5
Structural crises, contingent logics	8
The three components of futures studies	10
2. Megatrends and Explorations	17
Megatrends	17
Explorations	23
Anticipation	27
3. Risk and Uncertainty	29
Black swans and wild cards	30
Sensitivity to surprises	31
New risk profiles	34
One step back	36
From probability to consequences	37
Anticipatory risk management	38
Anticipation	39
4. Complicated and Complex	43
One subtle difference; actually, three	44
Clues of complexity	47

Social systems	49
Reductionism and non-reductionism	49
About houses and cats	51
Functional reproduction	52
General systems	54
The four meanings of anticipation	56
5. Working with the Future	59
The phases of a future exercise	59
Setup	61
Documentation	64
Visualization	73
Action	79
6. Future Methods and Exercises	81
Examples of previous classifications	82
Selection and organization criteria	89
Evaluation of future competencies	92
Conclusion	95
7. Collective Intelligence and Military Tactics	97
Anticipatory governance	97
Why is anticipatory governance necessary?	100
Auftragstaktik	102
Auftragstaktik and anticipatory governance	103
Auftragstaktik and the civilian world	105
8. The Ability to Aspire	109
Educational challenges	110
Orientation to the future	111
The future as opening new possibilities	113
Thin and thick present	114
The Fut-Lab experience	114
9. Fragments of Anticipation	123
Evidence-based policy	123
Value creation and innovation	126
Pragmatic utopia	129

10. The Skills of the Futurist	133
Understanding different aspiration capacities	133
Cognitive illusions	134
About daydreams	135
Futures literacy	136
Three basic principles	140
Post scriptum	141
Learn more: a guide to (the study of) the future	143
Introductions	143
Classics	143
Relevant texts	144
Methods	145
Miscellanea	145
Journals	146
Other resources	147
Associations	147
Companies/study centres	147
Bibliography	149