

Table of Contents

Foreword , by Massimo Della Ragione	XI
Introduction by Stefano Caselli, Gimede Gigante, Andrea Tortoroglio	XIII
1 The Fundamentals of Banks	1
by Stefano Caselli and Marta Zava
1.1 Banks and banking today	1
1.2 The functions of a bank	4
1.2.1 Money, the monetary function and the payment system	4
1.2.2 Credit and credit function	6
1.2.3 Financial investments, securitization, and the evolution of the role of banking in markets	7
1.3 The financials of banks	8
1.3.1 Understanding the financials of banks	8
1.3.2 Deriving the business model from the financials	12
1.4 Corporate and Investment Banking: A definition	19
1.4.1 The fundamentals of Corporate and Investment Banking	19
1.4.2 The evolution of Corporate and Investment Banking	20
1.4.3 Strategic models of the Corporate and Investment Banking system	20
Questions and answers	23
2 The Regulation of the Banking System and of Capital Adequacy	27
by Stefano Caselli and Marta Zava
2.1 Banking supervision	27
2.1.1 Why does banking supervision exist?	27
2.1.2 The style of banking supervision	29
2.2 The financial regulatory framework	31
2.2.1 How is the financial regulatory framework structured?	31
2.2.2 Banking Union	34
2.2.3 The SSM explained	35
2.3 Regulatory capital requirements	37
2.3.1 Functions	37
2.3.2 Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR)	38

2.3.3	Basel: The three pillars	39
2.3.4	Capital stack	42
2.4	Credit risk	44
2.4.1	Credit risk: Standardized approach (SA)	45
2.4.2	Credit risk: Internal ratings-based approach (IRB)	48
2.5	Market risk	54
2.5.1	The supervisory framework	56
2.6	Operational risk	58
2.6.1	The supervisory framework	59
2.7	Liquidity risk	61
	Questions and answers	63
3	Introduction to Corporate and Investment Banking	67
	by Stefano Caselli and Marta Zava
3.1	The business areas of Corporate and Investment Banking	67
3.2	Capital markets	68
3.3	Corporate Finance	75
3.4	Private Equity	78
3.5	Structured finance	81
3.6	Asset management	85
3.7	Risk management	86
3.8	Corporate lending	88
3.9	Analysing League Tables (2009-2019) worldwide	89
3.10	A European focus on League Tables	93
3.11	How have US investment banks come to dominate European investment banking?	105
	Questions and answers	108
4	Debt Capital Markets: Bond Offerings	115
	by Andrea Tortoroglio
4.1	Introduction	115
4.2	Bond Offerings: Definitions and DCM vocabulary	116
4.2.1	Player and product types	119
4.2.2	The process: Actors, workflow, and book building	126
4.2.3	Credit ratings	136
	Case study: Assicurazioni Generali , by Aldo Sioli and Chiara Campagner	138
	Case study: BTP 10Y , by Luca Falco and Pietro Bianculli	149
	Case study: Snam , by Luca Falco and Carolina Marazzini	158
	Case study: BP Capital , by Vittorio Ogliengo and Giulio Baratta	172
	Questions and answers	184
5	Corporate Lending and Syndicated Loans	187
	by Stefano Caselli and Kim Salvadori
5.1	Introduction	187
5.2	Types of loans	188
5.2.1	Revolving Credit Facilities (RCF)	188

5.2.2	Acquisition (or Capex) Facilities	189
5.2.3	Letters of Credit and Commercial Paper	189
5.2.4	Term Loan Facilities	190
5.2.5	Other loan products	193
5.3	Basics of loan covenants	194
5.4	Loan syndication	199
5.4.1	Underwritten vs Best efforts deals	199
5.4.2	Club deals: Fees, process and structure	202
5.4.3	Institutional deals: Fees, process and structure	204
	Questions and answers	209
6	Equity Capital Market: Primary Offerings – The IPO	217
	by Andrea Tortoroglio
6.1	Introduction	217
6.2	Why go public	218
6.3	The offering structure	220
6.4	American Depository Receipts (ADRs)	223
6.5	The Initial Public Offering (IPO)	226
6.5.1	Definitions	226
6.5.2	Overview of the key participants	227
6.5.3	The listing process and timetable	235
6.5.4	The syndicate structure	243
6.5.5	Price-setting mechanisms	257
6.5.6	Life after the IPO	267
	Case study: Ferrari IPO, by Riccardo Mulone	268
	Case study: Nexi IPO, by Francesco Papa	279
	Case study: Sanlorenzo IPO, by Antonio De Luca	290
	Questions and answers	305
7	The Equity Capital Market: Secondary Offerings	309
	by Andrea Tortoroglio and Matteo Scalfi
7.1	Introduction to Seasoned Equity Offerings (SEOs)	309
7.2	Rights offerings	311
7.2.1	Theoretical Ex-Right Price (TERP)	313
	Case study: UniCredit Rights Issue, by Jean Pierre Mustier	318
7.3	Accelerated Bookbuilding (ABB)	323
	Case study: ABB FinecoBank, by Paolo Garzarelli	328
7.4	Equity-linked – Convertibles	334
	Case study: Nexi Convertible Bond, by Francesco Papa	337
7.5	Strategic Equity Transactions	349
	Case study: On the accelerated stake building and subsequent placement by the French State (APE) in Renault, by Deutsche Bank Corporate Finance Team	351
	Questions and answers	355

8	Private Equity Deals	359
	by Stefano Caselli and Giulia Negri
8.1	Private equity: Definitions and main mechanisms	359
8.2	Private equity investment clusters	360
8.2.1	Seed financing	362
8.2.2	Start-up financing	362
8.2.3	Early stage financing	362
8.2.4	Expansion financing	363
8.2.5	Replacement financing	363
8.2.6	Vulture financing	364
8.3	Private equity in Europe	365
8.3.1	Understanding funds schemes	365
8.3.2	AMC in private equity	367
8.3.3	Closed-end funds	368
8.4	Banks as Private Equity Managers	371
8.5	Investment Banks sponsoring Private Equity Deals	373
8.5.1	M&A	374
8.5.2	LBO	376
8.6	Private equity in the Anglo-Saxon context: Venture capital funds	379
8.7	The remuneration mechanisms of the private equity industry	380
8.7.1	General overview of costs and revenues	381
8.7.2	Management fee	381
	Case study: Remuneration in a Closed-End Fund	382
8.7.3	Carried interest	386
8.8	The four pillars of private equity investment	386
8.8.1	Launching a fund: Fundraising	386
8.8.2	Selecting private equity firms: Investing	387
8.8.3	The term-sheet: Monitoring the investment	387
8.8.4	Exit	389
8.9	Corporate valuation applied to private equity investments	391
8.9.1	Private equity method	392
8.9.2	Venture capital method	392
	Questions and answers	394
9	M&A Transactions	399
	by Gimede Gigante
9.1	M&A: Introduction	399
9.2	The use of M&A in corporate strategy	401
9.2.1	Horizontal growth strategy	404
9.2.2	Vertical growth strategy	404
9.2.3	Conglomerates' growth strategy	405
9.2.4	Wrap up: 3 main growth strategies	406
9.2.5	Reasons behind M&A deals	407
9.3	Does M&A pay? Empirical evidence from past transactions	411
9.3.1	Event studies	412
9.3.2	Accounting studies	413

9.3.3	Clinical studies	414
9.3.4	Executive surveys	415
9.3.5	Wrap-up: Does M&A pay?	415
9.4	M&A: The M&A process	416
9.4.1	The investment bank's role	416
9.4.2	Auctions (sell-side mandate)	418
9.4.3	Negotiated deals	430
9.5	Structuring an M&A transaction	434
9.5.1	Acquisitions	435
9.5.2	Mergers	439
9.5.3	Consolidations	440
9.5.4	The different elements impacting deal structuring	440
9.6	M&A valuation	448
9.6.1	What does it take to make M&A pay?	448
9.6.2	The value of the target "as is"	450
9.6.3	The value of control	455
9.6.4	The value of synergies	456
9.6.5	Common errors in valuing synergies	459
9.6.6	The acquisition premium	461
9.7	Accretion/Dilution Analysis and merger gains/costs	462
9.7.1	Value creation analysis	462
9.7.2	Cost and gain assessment	464
9.8	Overview of M&A activities in 2019 and outlook for 2020 after the impact of the COVID-19 crisis	466
9.8.1	Main sectoral trends	466
9.8.2	Impact of COVID-19 on M&A activity	467
9.8.3	Ranking of Financial Advisors relating to M&A deals concluded in Italy in 2019	468
9.9	The Art of M&A: Summary	468
	Questions and answers	471
10	Risk Management in M&A Transactions	475
	by Gimede Gigante
10.1	Introduction	475
10.2	Earnouts	477
10.2.1	Literature review of earnouts	477
10.2.2	Structuring earnouts	479
10.2.3	The earnout parameters	480
10.3	Collars	487
10.3.1	Fixed-exchange ratio and floating exchange ratio collars	490
10.3.2	The economic rationale for collars	497
10.3.3	Merger arbitrage	498
10.3.4	The arbitrage spread	500
10.3.5	The interpretation of the arbitrage spread	502
10.4	Deal-contingent derivatives transactions	503
10.4.1	Deal timeline/approach	503

10.5	Conclusions	504
10.6	Summary	506
	Questions and answers	506
11	Corporate Restructuring	509
	by Gimede Gigante and Luigi Caprotti
11.1	Introduction. Market trends and evolution of restructuring	509
11.2	Why do companies need restructuring?	512
11.3	Assessing a distressed company	518
	11.3.1 When does distress begin?	518
	11.3.2 Distressed valuation	520
	11.3.3 Debt sustainability	523
	11.3.4 Distress and leveraged buyouts	524
11.4	Private workouts vs in-court procedures	530
11.5	Private workouts	531
	11.5.1 Players involved and due process	531
	11.5.2 Types of debt and lenders	535
	11.5.3 Restructuring options. From renegotiation to refinancing and M&A	536
11.6	In-court procedures	542
	11.6.1 US legal framework	544
	11.6.2 The Italian legal framework	546
	11.6.3 Italian insolvency procedures for large corporations	551
	11.6.4 The Italian insolvency law reform	552
	Case study: Ferroli	553
	Case study: C.M.C. di Ravenna	558
	Questions and answers	560
12	Inside M&A Transactions	571
	by Gimede Gigante
12.1	Case study: Merger between Banco Popolare and Banca Popolare di Milano	571
	12.1.1 Introduction	571
	12.1.2 The parties	572
	12.1.3 The rationale behind the transaction	574
	12.1.4 Terms of the transaction	584
	12.1.5 Specific aspects of FIG Deal valuation	590
	12.1.6 The process	593
12.2	Case study: Prysmian's acquisition of General Cable	594
	12.2.1 Introduction	594
	12.2.2 The parties	595
	12.2.3 The rationale behind the transaction	599
	12.2.4 Terms of the transaction	604
	12.2.5 The process	609
	Bibliography	611